FROM SELF-LOVE TO SELF-GIFT

I give myself away through love in the measure in which Christ increases in me. This is the essence of the Christian understanding of the law of the gift. Forever changed by the encounter with the person of Jesus, the likes of St. Gaspar del Buffalo, St. Francis Xavier, St. Maria de Mattias and Venerable John Merlini moved from self-love to self-gift. They found their purpose and fulfilment beyond a life lived solely focused upon own ego, quest for power and other worldly enticements. It was love—a sincere gift of self—which compelled them to abandon themselves totally to God and to “reach out in love to the outcast, the stranger, the brokenhearted and betrayed, the poor, the lonely and lost, the sick and the suffering, the grieving and the guilty, the forsaken and forgotten”.

For St. Gaspar in particular, he saw in the saving act of Blood of Christ on the Cross a glimpse of the extent to which our saviour was willing to suffer in order to seek out and reach those who were lost. His response was total: “Oh crown, loosen thyself so that I can place my head therein. Oh nails, release those innocent hands of my Lord and pierce my heart with compassion and love. Oh my loving Lord, intoxicate our hearts with this wine, burn them with this flame, wound them with the arrows of your love”. To me, this sounds like pouring the chalice of passion into our hearts, and even better, drinking, so to speak, from the same chalice which our Lord drank in love for us to the very end. The implication is that we participate in the Sacrifice of the Cross in which the Lord Jesus gives himself unreservedly to save humanity. With his lifeblood running through our veins, how can we not go to all corners of world wiping sweats, listening to the cry of blood, touching wounds, and healing scars? “How can we”, as Nathan Mitchell bemoans, “keep the hungry child hungry, the table bare, the furnace cold, the beggar’s bowl empty, the old woman’s meds priced well beyond her reach?”. And, this is precisely what we mean when we say, “The Precious Blood is the gift of an ending love”. Indeed, the gift which keeps on giving, both from the love which Christ loves us and the love by which we love God and one another.

The gift enclosed, your copy of the calendar, is an invitation to open your heart to the likes of the people featured in this calendar. As you display this calendar in your home or workplace, you join us “outside the camp” where “we stand in solidarity with those who are shunned by majority, ostracized by the institution, and pushed away from the table”. Where we come in contact with the blood, scars and sweats of those who have been crushed by the excruciating weight of life’s cross—the poor, homeless, elderly, victims of human trafficking, war, violence and injustice.

ONE HUNDRED PERCENT OF THE PROCEEDS WE RAISE FROM OUR CALENDARS GO TO SPREAD OUR SPIRITUALITY AND STRENGTHEN OUR MISSIONS IN IMPOVERISHED COMMUNITIES ACROSS THE WORLD WITH A PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO TANZANIA. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

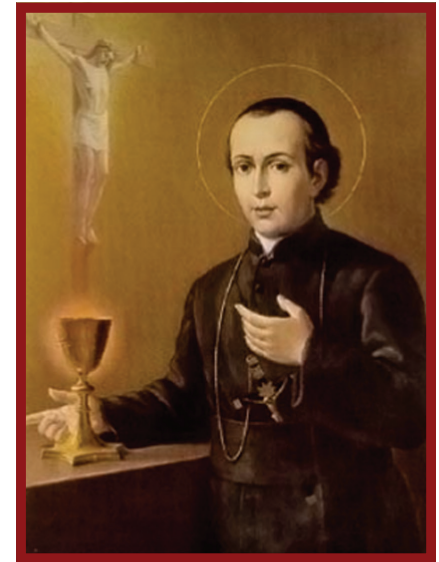

C.P.P.S. PIONEERS

St. Gaspar del Bufalo, the apostle of the Precious Blood, was born in Rome on January 6, 1786. As a devoted priest he worked tirelessly to re-evangelize central Italy, especially the Papal States. He was well known for his eloquence in preaching, his devotion to the poor (especially the Santa Galla Hospice in Rome), and his work with the brigands of southern Lazio. In his missionary travels throughout Italy he invited the faithful to reflect upon and adore the Precious Blood of Christ, the bloodstream of his own personal spiritual life.

In 1815 he founded the Congregation of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. Exhausted by constant ministry and care for the community, he died December 28, 1837 in Rome. He was beatified by St. Pius X in 1904 and canonized by Pius XII on June 12, 1954. Exhibiting his particular devotion to St. Gaspar del Bufalo, Pope John XXIII visited his body in the Church of Santa Maria in Trivio on January 4, 1963, where it remains enshrined for the veneration of the faithful.

His followers continue to turn to him for inspiration as they fulfill the wish he once expressed: “I wish that I could have a thousand tongues, to endear every heart to the Precious Blood of Jesus.” His feast is celebrated in the City of Rome and by members of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood on October 21st.

St. Gaspar del Bufalo

Venerable John Merlini

John Merlini was the third Moderator General of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. Having become a priest in 1818, he was captivated by the zeal of St Gaspar whom he met in the abbey of San Felice in Giano of Umbria, where Gaspar had founded the Congregation of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood in 1815. His devotion to the Precious Blood of Jesus and to Our Lady was such that, at the mere mention of it, he was moved to tears. In their honor he erected altars and important churches, whose works he planned and directed, often joining the workers to guide and help them.

Merlini became a noted spiritual director and the most splendid fruit of this ministry was Saint Maria de Mattias, founder of the Sisters Adorers of the Most Precious Blood, whom he guided throughout her life and shared in the work of her Institute.

Merlini died in 1873 after he sustained injuries in a traffic accident in Rome near the Santa Maria in Trivio church. The last thing he did before he died was to forgive the coachman who had run into him. His remains are interred Santa Maria in Trivio church next to his founder, Gaspare del Bufalo .

The last phase of the canonical process for his beatification is still underway in Rome as we invite you to join us in praying for the cause of his sainthood and contact us regarding any miracle received from God through his intercession at info@preciousbloodatlantic.org

Eternal Father, grant us, we pray, the grace of the beatification and canonization of your servant, John Merlini.

DEVELOPMENT OFFICE

C.P.P.S. Missionaries

C.P.P.S., stands for Congregatio Missionariorum Pretiosissimi Sanguinis, translated into English as Congregation of Missionaries of the Precious Blood.

The Missionaries of the Precious Blood are a world-wide Roman Catholic Community of Apostolic Life or priests and brothers rooted in the Spirituality of the Blood of Christ. “In this devotion, states our Founder, St. Gaspar Del Bufalo, ‘we go to the heart of our faith’.” (Constitution, Art IV)

The C.P.P.S. continues St. Gaspar’s ministry of the Word by preaching renewal and conversion through missions and retreats. They bring the love of God also to parishes, schools, hospitals and prisons. As missionaries they work where the Church needs them most and where the Good News has not been heard.

Following St. Gaspar, the Missionaries live together whenever the needs of the apostolate permit. A bond of charity unites them instead of vows, placing their gifts at the service of the Church and one another. The members of the Atlantic Province minister as teachers and chaplains, conduct retreats and attend to parish life. Their houses serve as centers of prayer and reflection to renew them for their mission.

Unio Sanguis Christi

The Unio Sanguis Christi seeks to promote a prayerful and active apostolate among the faithful in the spirituality of the Most Precious Blood.

The Union Sanguis Christi (USC) offers a program of spirituality solidly based in the traditions of the Catholic Church to guide its membership to holiness of life. It helps members live out this vocation in all its dimensions—devotional, ministerial and apostolic.

Those enrolled in the Union become part of the religious family founded by St. Gaspar del Bufalo on August 15, 1815. Any properly disposed Catholic may be incorporated into the Union upon completion of the period of formation.

The members of the Union meet periodically—locally and/or regionally—for prayer, adoration, discussion, days of recollection, and retreats. Far from the simple embodiment of various rules and regulations, the USC offers a vital and challenging vision of Christian life worthy of the priestly People of God. It provides one way in which to perfect our baptismal consecration and to stimulate the continued growth of the laity in the life of the Spirit as well as in the mission of the Church.

For information on formation and USC activities, contact Dcn. Gerardo V. Laguartilla, C.P.P.S. at uscatlanticprovince@gmail.com

Please join us in praying for our C.P.P.S. members, candidates in formation and all our lay volunteers.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, OUR HOPE IN EVERY SEASON OF LIFE

Some parts of our human family, it appears, can be readily sacrificed for the sake of others considered worthy of a carefree existence. Ultimately, “persons are no longer seen as a paramount value to be cared for and respected, especially when they are poor and disabled, ‘not yet useful’ – like the unborn, or ‘no longer needed’ – like the elderly. We have grown indifferent to all kinds of wastefulness. ~Fratelli Tutti #18

The Blood of Christ impels us to affirm the Church’s teaching that life is a precious gift given to us by God, but it is so fragile if taken for granted. As we drink from the Cup of Eternal Covenant, may we see him in all human life, and always work to protect, heal and cherish the lives of all whom we encounter.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, REACHING OUT TO THE POOR AND VULNERABLE

Do you wish to honor the body of Christ? Do not ignore him when he is naked. Do not pay him homage in the temple clad in silk, only then to neglect him outside where he is cold and ill clad. He who said: "This is my body" is the same who said: "You saw me hungry and you gave me no food", and "Whatever you did to the least of my brothers you did also to me"... What good is it if the Eucharistic table is overloaded with golden chalices when your brother is dying of hunger? Start by satisfying his hunger and then with what is left you may adorn the altar as well.
~St. John Chrysostom

The Blood of Christ commits us to those who have been pushed to the peripheries. Our missions in Africa support 2.5 million people a year. We devote ourselves to the education of children and young people by means of different kinds of schools. We also work tirelessly to give access to clean water to the people and communities in desperate need. May we always be ready to help the poor and the vulnerable.

St. Gaspar Primary students gather on the playground for a photo with Jemille and Savannah Chu Morrison. Maria De Mattias, may your holiness infect us and be an inspiration for that inner renewal we all need to be a prophetic presence of reconciliation and peace in the world, to go back to being more human, capable of closeness and a real encounter with humanity.

Give us the courage to hear every story of every person with dignity and respect.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, STANDING AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

St Josephine Bakhita, who was sold to slavery at a young age, is known as the patron saint of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking. Her Feast Day is on February 8, also known as the World Day of Prayer, Reflection and Action Against Human Trafficking.
~Vatican

As vessels of the Blood of Christ we work to eliminate the root causes and markets that permit traffickers to flourish; to make whole the survivors of this crime; and to ensure that, one day soon, the scourge of trafficking in human persons vanishes from the face of the earth. Applying the merits of the Precious Blood may we not fall into indifference; that we may open our eyes and look upon the miseries and wounds of so many brothers and sisters deprived of their dignity and freedom, and hear their cry for help.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, TEACHING ECOLOGY

A Christian who doesn't safeguard creation, who doesn't make it flourish, is a Christian who isn't concerned with God's work, that work born of God's love for us. What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up? The question not only concerns the environment in isolation; the issue cannot be approached piecemeal.

~Pope Francis

To live the spirituality of the Precious Blood means also caring for the environment. Our individual and collective attitude toward the environment should reflect our interdependence and common responsibility for the future of our planet. Individual nations must measure their own self-interest against the greater common good and contribute equitably to global solutions.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, FONT OF RECONCILIATION

We recall how Jesus—already knowing that he would be betrayed—nonetheless shares the bread with the disciples, proclaiming the advent of a new covenant. Even in the broken bread—foretelling his broken body—a new relationship is being born.

~ Robert Schreiter, C.P.P.S.

The relationship we share in the Blood of Christ is that the cross draws all people near, those “who were far off,” those we find difficult to love, those who have hurt us or betrayed us or broken our hearts.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, JOURNEYING WITH REFUGEES AND MIGRANTS

It difficult to drink from the cup today because we are uncomfortable with bloodshed. But then, coming to grips with bloodshed...is precisely the point. Because without the cup, the Eucharist might easily sink to the level of an elegant dinner, where—surrounded by friends, fragrance, lights, and music—we sup serenely while the rest of the world goes mad. Good etiquette, alas, can make us forget our origins—and the origins of what we eat and drink.

~ Nathan Mitchell

The Blood of Christ stands with the refugees and migrants who are forced to leave their lands to provide for their families or to escape persecution. We stand in solidarity with you. We commit ourselves to your pastoral care and to work toward changes in church and societal structures that impede your exercising your dignity and living as children of God.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, FOUNDATION FOR DIALOGUE

It can be easy to identify as “neighbor” those on the margins of our society such as those experiencing homelessness or poverty. But how often do we see our neighbor in the person who disagrees with us?

~USCCB

As vessels of the Blood of Christ we work as agents of reconciliation in the Church to unite people in common purpose. We undermine our commitment to human life and dignity when we fail to see the dignity of those who have a different viewpoint. The Blood of Christ calls us to detach from the bitterness that surrounds us and seek a better path. We hold that God’s love for each person requires us to remember that someone who disagrees with us is still a beloved child of God who deserves our love, respect, and care. God alone is the truth, we are stewards of truth, and truth is only held as a common stewardship.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, FOSTERING EQUALITY AND THE COMMON GOOD

When people become self-centred and self-enclosed, their greed increases. The emptier a person's heart is, the more he or she needs things to buy, own and consume. It becomes almost impossible to accept the limits imposed by reality. In this horizon, a genuine sense of the common good also disappears. As these attitudes become more widespread, social norms are respected only to the extent that they do not clash with personal needs.
~Pope Francis

The burdens of inequality can weigh so heavily on some, especially for those who have been pushed to the peripheries. As Precious Blood people we partner with you to give a helping hand to disadvantaged families and communities regain their dignity and create structures for them to flourish. We also pray for true conversion from the idolatry of wealth, which causes us to ignore those in need, allowing others to go hungry and die while we turn money and worldly possessions into false gods.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, PROPHETIC VOICE FOR INSPIRING CHANGE

While praying one day and while contemplating the Crucifix, it seemed that I heard these words: 'Look, my son, at my divine Blood. Through sufferings, I poured it out, and through sufferings will its adoration be promoted.' Humankind shudders at the word suffering, but it is nevertheless necessary for one to learn to carry the Cross. This is the great ladder to heaven!

~St. Gaspar del Bufallo

St. Gaspar saved a lawless and a bandit-ravaged town of Sonnino from annihilation not with weapons as the civil authorities had desperately resorted, but with the Crucifix. If we are looking to inspire change and make our evangelization meaningful, then we should learn from the greatest of books—the Cross. “At the foot of the cross”, he said, “is where the repentant sinner finds comfort, where the troubled soul finds courage, where the soul already sanctified finds the tenderness of love”.

*“Rid yourselves of everything sordid and of every wicked excess, and welcome in all humility the word that is implanted in you and is able to save your souls.
Be doers of the word and not just hearers who only deceive themselves.” - James 1:21-22*

Give me strength to break the cycle of violence by realizing that peace begins with me.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, RAISING AWARENESS OF FOOD SECURITY

If you can't feed a hundred people, then feed just one.
~Mother Teresa.

The Eucharist is a missionary sacrament; it calls us to give all we are and have to God, seek his blessing and then take his love to the world. Obeying Jesus' command to "do this in memory of me," demands exchange, encounter and a genuine solidarity that we will never let anyone go hungry.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, SAVING LIVES AND BRINGING PEACE

Let there be peace on Earth.

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. ~Ephesians 2:13-15.

The Blood of Christ has made us a one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers' and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that "if you want peace, work for justice." The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

BLOOD OF CHRIST, SOURCE OF HUMAN SOLIDARITY

True solidarity—though it begins with an acknowledgment of the equal worth of the other—comes to fulfillment only when I willingly place my life at the service of others.

~Benedict XVI

In sharing in the Blood of Christ we not only enter into communion; we also commit ourselves to offer the Blood of Christ to a world thirsty for harmony with God, with humanity and with all creation. We become as it were “living chalices” carrying the Precious Blood of Christ, that sacred balm, to those who are in need of healing in their brokenness, to those wounded by poverty, to those left half dead by the wayside, scorned and scarred by prejudice, racism, and war. The Precious Blood invites us to inclusion, to the expansive vision reflected in the book of Revelation (7:9-14), that speaks of welcoming and hospitality to those abandoned or pushed to the margins.

MASS ASSOCIATION

Since the Church enjoins on all the faithful the charitable obligation to pray for the living and the dead, the 4000 Perpetual Masses is an ideal way to be in association of solidarity in prayer carried out by the Unio Sanguis Christi with the approval of Pope Leo XIII in 1883. The Masses are offered by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood and the names of those enrolled are kept in the Archives of the USC.

Enrollment can be done in person at St. Alphonsus Church in Toronto, by mail sending a request at Shrine of St Gaspar 540 St Clair Ave W, Toronto ON M6C 1A4, or by phone 416-653-4486. The donation is $25.00 plus $4.00 for mailing the certificate of registration which will be issued.

You may also access the website - preciousbloodatlantic.org - click on Donations for more choices, like requesting a single Massa, a Mass Association or make a donation for spreading the spirituality of the Precious Blood or the work of the Missionaries by completing all the required fields.

C.P.P.S. MISSION PROJECTS

Operation Nutrition

WE FEED 1500
CHILDREN,
THREE MEALS
A DAY

70% of our students do not have access to at least two meals a day, let alone a healthy diet. 50% of those are likely to go hungry at least three times a week. A reliable and healthy diet fuels the brain, making kids more likely to focus easily and perform well at school.

IT COSTS 12,000 USD TO FEED 1500 CHILDREN A MONTH! YOUR SUPPORT IS MUCH NEEDED.

Thanks to all the donors and volunteers who sustain these efforts as part of the C.P.P.S. Mission Projects in Tanzania.

MEMORARE TO OUR LADY OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

Our Lady of the Precious Blood

*O Mother of Jesus Crucified, unite my prayers with yours,
obtain for me the merciful bounty
of the Divine Blood.*

Remember, O Lady of the Precious Blood,
the sorrowful sheddings of the Blood of your son, Jesus and the most bitter tears that you mingle with His Redeeming Blood.
In the name of the Blood of the Victim of Reparation and of your holy tears;
in the name of the seven swords which pierced your heart, by which you became the Mediatrix of all graces for the human race and the Queen of Martyrs, have pity on my soul and on all its miseries...
have pity on the poor, the sick, the infirm,
on all their sufferings, both physical and moral;
have pity on the agonizing,
especially upon those who, except for your intercession, would leave this world without being purified in the Blood of the Lamb.
It is by the Blood of thy Dying Son, by His inexpressible Sufferings, by His last plea to His Father in favor of mankind,
by His ignominious Death
and by the perpetuation of His Sacrifice on Catholic Altars, that I beg thee not to reject my supplications, but graciously hear them.
Amen.
